

Meaningful Movies Olympia Presents

DAWNLAND

A DOCUMENTARY ABOUT CULTURAL SURVIVAL AND STOLEN CHILDREN

During most of the 20th century Native American children were taken from their homes and placed with white families. In the 1970s, 1 in 4 Native children were in foster care, adoptive homes or boarding schools. This film shares their stories.

PANEL AND CONVERSATION FOLLOWS FILM

Thursday, November 21, 2019 — 6:30 p.m.

Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation
2200 East End Street (parking)
Bus line 41

FREE SCREENING — OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Find us on

<http://facebook.com/meaningfulmoviesolympia>

Sponsored by:

Learning
Right
Relations

Meaningful Movies Olympia Presents

DAWNLAND

A DOCUMENTARY ABOUT CULTURAL SURVIVAL AND STOLEN CHILDREN

During most of the 20th century Native American children were taken from their homes and placed with white families. In the 1970s, 1 in 4 Native children were in foster care, adoptive homes or boarding schools. This film shares their stories.

PANEL AND CONVERSATION FOLLOWS FILM

Thursday, November 21, 2019 — 6:30 p.m.

Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation
2200 East End Street (parking)
Bus line 41

FREE SCREENING — OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Find us on

<http://facebook.com/meaningfulmoviesolympia>

Sponsored by:

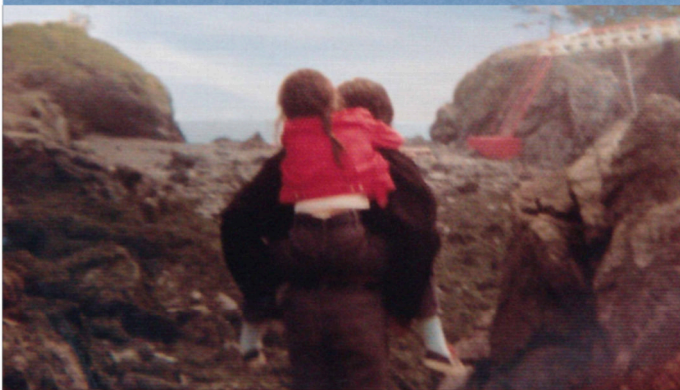

Learning
Right
Relations

Meaningful Movies Olympia Presents

DAWNLAND

A DOCUMENTARY ABOUT CULTURAL SURVIVAL AND STOLEN CHILDREN

During most of the 20th century Native American children were taken from their homes and placed with white families. In the 1970s, 1 in 4 Native children were in foster care, adoptive homes or boarding schools. This film shares their stories.

PANEL AND CONVERSATION FOLLOWS FILM

Thursday, November 21, 2019 — 6:30 p.m.

Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation
2200 East End Street (parking)
Bus line 41

FREE SCREENING — OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Find us on

<http://facebook.com/meaningfulmoviesolympia>

Sponsored by:

Learning
Right
Relations

Meaningful Movies Olympia Presents

DAWNLAND

A DOCUMENTARY ABOUT CULTURAL SURVIVAL AND STOLEN CHILDREN

During most of the 20th century Native American children were taken from their homes and placed with white families. In the 1970s, 1 in 4 Native children were in foster care, adoptive homes or boarding schools. This film shares their stories.

PANEL AND CONVERSATION FOLLOWS FILM

Thursday, November 21, 2019 — 6:30 p.m.

Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation
2200 East End Street (parking)
Bus line 41

FREE SCREENING — OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Find us on

<http://facebook.com/meaningfulmoviesolympia>

Sponsored by:

Learning
Right
Relations

