

Book Event at the Olympia Friends Meeting House

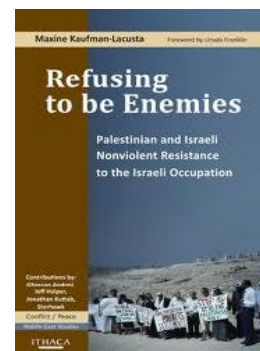

Near el-Arakib, Israel, April 2012

Refusing to be Enemies Maxine Kaufman-Lacusta

May 28th

7:00 pm

3201 Boston Harbor Rd. SE
Contact: Jack Zeiger, (360) 943-0965

Maxine Kaufman-Lacusta, a Quaker Jewish activist and writer from Burnaby, B.C., Canada, will speak on nonviolence in Palestine and introduce her book,

Refusing to be Enemies: Palestinian and Israeli Nonviolent Resistance to the Israeli Occupation

"An interview-based study that presents the voices of over 100 practitioners and theorists of nonviolence, the vast majority either Palestinian or Israeli, as they reflect on their own involvement in nonviolent resistance and speak about the nonviolent strategies and tactics employed by Palestinian and Israeli organizations."

More info at <http://refusingtobeenemiesthebook.wordpress.com>

Copies of Refusing to be Enemies will be available for purchase and signing
Event sponsored/endorsed by the Peace & Social Justice Committee of Olympia Friends Meeting, the Canadian Friends Service Committee, and Independent Jewish Voices (IJV-Vancouver and IJV-Canada)

